

SENATOR ROESCH IS TO WED.HEGNER SHALL NOT PLAY.

Bis-Betrothal to Miss Frances A. Lederle Announced.

The Bride's Charming Woman of Many Accomplishments.

Senator George F. Roesch is receiving congratulations from his many friends upon his betrothal yesterday to Miss Frances A. Lederle, daughter of Francis A. Lederle, a wealthy east-side property-owner, of 205 East Tenth street;

From appearances the patch-up will not be at all satisfactory for the great leader.

Things were still in a muddled condition this morning, both sides vowing they will not give in.

The trouble arose last night when the Union swooped down upon Mr. Damrosch, just before the concert at the Music Hall, and demanded that he discharge Herr Hegner, a cellist soloist whom Miss Lederle had just imported from Copenhagen.

Mr. Damrosch at first refused, but the representatives of the Union informed him that if they played in the same orchestra with Herr Hegner they would be indicted. Then Mr. Damrosch agreed to let Hegner retire and the concert went on.

The Union demands that Herr Hegner, now having been a resident in this country for three years, should not be allowed to play in any orchestra whose members belong to the Union.

Mr. Damrosch and the members of the Union have had some conferences, and it was understood that Herr Hegner was not to appear.

Alexander H. Green, the Secretary of the Mutual Protective Union, was seen this morning and said: "No, we shall not allow Herr Hegner to play in Mr. Damrosch's concerts under any circumstances." He added: "It is the interest of this country for the required time. We had informed Mr. Damrosch of this, and he agreed, and I hope he will do his best to help him to retire, but he would not listen."

The thing is, our leaders going to Europe, and our leaders going to India, are not to be blamed; for we have just as good art can be found anywhere. We now have 2,800 members who are the work of many of whom are not to be blamed.

"Our profession is one of luxury, and depends upon the financial prosperity of the country. Why of the great number of musicians in this country, the World's Fair, the major part, yet, nearly all of them were foreigners. We will push this case, and as the court of inquiry is to be held to-morrow, we will do our best to secure in our favor, it will do so again."

Mr. Damrosch was busy with a rehearsal of his new evening program, which will open Saturday, but Mr. Hegner said that nothing had yet been decided in the matter.

Miss Lederle's father is a member of the Union, and he has been very active at the unveiling of the monument to the Post's dead that she first met Senator Roesch, who was the orator of the day.
